There was some discussion on the newsletter and how things are going. It was communicated that a committee should be formed and that it would be good if consisted of the Supervisor's, secretary and Mr. Horsley. The Supervisor's noted that Mr. Horsley would be a good candidate to chair the committee. It was also specified that moving forward the newsletter should be reviewed by multiple people before going to the printer.

There was some talk on the Supervisor's terms. Linda wanted to remind Doug and Bob they need to check with elections office as far as a time frame for filing their paperwork.

The Supervisor's spent some time reviewing and itemizing expected income and expenses for the budget. They will continue to go over the remainder of the budget at the next meeting scheduled for November 4th.
